To Whom It May Concern:

Based on our recent experience with College Station Electric, I am pleased to write this letter.

College Station Electric was our subcontractor for a new Surgery Addition and major renovations at Trinity Medical Center. We were pleased with the performance of College Station Electric from the first presentation made during the selection process, through the completion in March, 2006. Jack Mathews was involved in the initial phase and stayed involved in the project as it progressed to completion.

Overall, we were extremely pleased with the performance of College Station Electric in this project and will strongly consider them on future projects.

If I can provide additional information regarding our experience with College Station Electric, please do not hesitate to let me know.

Sincerely,
